Our Family's Coffee

In 1890, our great-great-grandparents moved to the mountainous Mogiana region of Brazil, an area known for its rich soils and cool valley air. That same year they planted their first crop of coffee, harvested it by hand, and pulled it out of the valley with a team of ox-drawn carts. Since those humble yet proud beginnings, social and environmental stewardship have been our heritage, and the internationally celebrated Nossa Familia Coffee that you drink today is steeped in over 100 years of family history.
